SGW Portal

What is the importance of SGW systems?

The Security Gateway (SGW) has become an integral safety feature in modern vehicles, acting as a vital defense against unauthorized access to the vehicle's networks and systems.

It functions by strictly monitoring traffic on the vehicle's Controller Area Network (CAN), ensuring that only authorized communications can occur and effectively blocking any unauthorized data-writing attempts.

This safeguard is essential for preserving the security and integrity of a vehicle's electronic Systems. With the implementation of EU Regulation 2018/858, an increasing number of vehicle manufacturers have begun to enhance the protection of vehicle electronics through the OBD interface using security gateway modules.

This regulation has changed the dynamics of previously unrestricted interactions between vehicle diagnostic devices and the vehicles themselves.

LAUNCH Europe – SGW Solution

LAUNCH Europe GmbH now provide SGW activation services for various models, including FIAT Chrysler Automobiles (with availability for Maserati), Mercedes, and Renault/Dacia.

This enables the restoration of full access to all diagnostic functions, ensuring comprehensive vehicle maintenance and repair capabilities.
